TURK'S ISLAND.

The financial condition of this British colony is anything but encouraging, the revenues showing a considerable falling oil and the Treasury being A company has been formed, named the Island Commercial Association (limited), with Purk's Island Commercial Association (limited), with a capital of $20,000, in fifty dollar shares, the object of which is to purchase and imports such articles as tree needed for consumption on the Island, and for the disposal of sait. The association proposes to commence operations at once, and one of the directors will proceed mimodiately to the United States to carry out the intentions of the association. The total imports of goods for the year 1863 were 260,778, while the average for the last live years, landing 1868, was £25,943; and the duties paid on mported goods hat year amounted to £3,000, against 4,300 in 1867. This deficiency is partly accounted or by the introduction of damaged goods from St. Thomas, which were taken from vessels sunk in that harbor by the evicione of October, 1867. There is been exported during the year 1,398,000 bushes if asia, against 1,041,528 bushels exported in 1857. The estimated revenue for 1860 is £5,691, while the expenditures with be £9,451, leaving a deficiency of 2860 to be provided for. The stone piers, injured by the hurricane at Grand Turk are to be repaired.

FILTHY CONDITION OF THE BAY SHORE. FORT HAMILTON, N. Y., June 7, 1869.

Having noticed your exposures of the workings of e Quarantine laws under Dr. Swinburne, and he log a member of the Board of Health, I would eing a member of the Board of Health, I would espectfully call your attention to the following opy of a communication, signed by citizens of this own and forwarded to the treasurer of the Board (Health. Fearing that he will not give it publicity, degm it expedient to ask that you give it a place a your valuable paper:—

"We would respectfully call your attention to the lithy condition of the beach in the immediate foinity of Fort Hamilto 1. The party who now has harge of the sanitary arrangements for the district—commencing at Court street and ending on he north shore of Coney Island—has only one man imployed to keep this large extent of shore clean, and your good judement will show you that it is sterly impossible for one man to keep such a large latrict in good order. Hoping you will give this natter your early attention, and thereby earn the nanks of numerous residents of the shore road, we smaln, sir, your most obedient servants."
